

The Tzolk'in Clock – Deer Trecena

Here is a link to my new book: The Twenty Trecenas of the Tzolk'in.

The deer trecena uses an energy of stamping something with authority. Who are you? with authority! There is no room for doubt. It's knowing you are right and knowing you are wrong.

The previous jaguar trecena crossed the top of the east face of the Tzolk'in Clock (shown). The deer trecena travels down along the north side of the east face. The next two trecenas (Light and Reed) are on the east to north corner of the Tzolk'in Clock.

People born on deer days should realize that not all people are like you. You need to temper your judgment, because you have the power to drop the hammer. People born on the other day intentions are not given the deer role of authority.

It's also a day of giving authority to others. Yes, I can do this! So, your role is also supportive; as by giving people the seal of approval to be themselves. People need this. It helps them eliminate doubt from their goals. Deer people can build people up or tear them down with ease.

The deer trecena also connects us closely to nature, especially using our five physical senses plus our deer sense. It's our time to use the medicines that nature has to offer. Deer represents our collective morals. It is also the energy that brings us out of our sleep after the previous day's transformer energy. Deer energy peacefully reconnects our spirit to earth and body by pulling us out of our sleep state of the collective consciousness.

Your Elder Intention

After 52 Ha'ab years, the Tzolk'in and Ha'ab have experienced every combination possible. When this cycle completes there is an 8-day gap between the stars in the sky and Tzolk'in. Based on that 8-day gap, you get a new outlook on life, commonly referred to as "your mid-life crisis". However, it's not a crisis, it's enlightenment. You have seen the past 52 Ha'ab years through one outlook. When you turn 52 years old, you get a new outlook, and your vision of life is improved from monocular to bi-ocular.

Consider each dot shown on the Tzolk'in as a different outlook. It's very rare that two people born on the same Tzolk'in day get to interact. The odds are 1:260. This helps explain how people are always seeing the same things differently. Yet, our collective consciousness sees all 260 outlooks at once. The Tzolk'in Clock is a map of our collective interactions. Once you map your family and friends and co-workers on the Tzolk'in Clock you will better see their points of view.

There is also a special relationship on the Tzolk'in Clock for two people born on directly opposite days. By opposite, it means, when folded into a 3D view, one of the 260 outlooks points directly at one of the other outlooks. How would these two people interact? Could this be a "soulmate" interaction? Would they have "telepathic" communication? My research has found three long and successful marriages born on the opposite trecena.

The soulmate connection is deeper, more than having things in common. It is an energy connection off all seven chakras. You can easily see a soulmates point of view as if in their mind while they see their own thoughts. There is also a balance to this relationship.

Could there be a special combination of 4 people on the Tzolk'in when interacting? Could they collectively achieve a high collective state of mind? Could they collectively get a better view on ideas that matter to the public? Gathering people and mapping their locations on the Tzolk'in Clock and discussing ideas would be offer many group experiments. For instance, asking for a social solution from four people born on 1-Reed, 1-Flint, 1-Night and 1-Star might give a better collective solution for all of us. It would be a well rounded and represented solution with perspectives from all four directions.

The Deer Elder – a story

The Deer was a Rainstorm before she was born. Her Deer spirit was born 52 years after her body was formed. As she waited to become a deer, she pondered. She has a deep understanding of mother earth and she can create rainstorms at will. She sees all of creation yet has no voice to share her understandings. Still a mere Rainstorm she expressed herself openly and honestly.

A sheet for your use

The following sheet lists all 260 Tzolk'in days as they flow from east, north, west and south. The first row is the east face of the Tzolk'in Clock starting with 1-Crocodile. The second row is the north face starting with 1-Transformer. The third row is the west face starting with 1-Monkey. The fourth row is the south starting with 1-Wisdom.

You can print this and use it to mark your friends and family. It helps to remember or share their Tzolk'in birthdays. (Note: this is a preliminary version of the sheet).

Each row is a team. Team East, Team North, Team West and Team East. People born on the same team tend to get along, naturally. See if you can locate 6 Storm and 9 Rabbit. Which team are they on? Which team are you on? Are any of your friends on the same team as you?

I had the pleasure of receiving photos from Kathleen Wildwood (Storytelling, Alternative Healing, Energy Healing, Spiritual Healing, Music Healing | Kathleen Wildwood). I added the Madrid codex version of the Tzolkin to include more detail. I also compiled all four photos for a 3D effect.

Deer trecena on the Tzolk'in Clock

1 Deer	Watch yourself this trecena and avoid getting yourself into trouble with the authorities. Sync yourself with natural law and stay present with nature.
2 Star	Focus on your goals. Find new places in your mental fields to plant new seeds.
3 Water	Today's energy can toss you around. Hang out with your family and friends for support. Offer your prayers to flowing water.
4 Dog	This is seriously a dog day afternoon. It's a fun day at the dog park.
5 Monkey	It's a playful day. Monkey days are the day of choices for tomorrow (6-Road). Which road should you take to travel?
6 Road	A fun day for short trips and appreciating others.
7 Reed	Today's energy is the human connection to god. Where does god connect with you? Feel the graceful energy of mother earth and father sky.
8 Jaguar	Get in touch with your animal side. Get frisky.
9 Eagle	As the eagle flies high in the energy of 9.
10 Wisdom	Try something new, like count the number of smiles you give to other people.
11 Earth	This day especially connects with the Deer trecena. Feel how the days energy changes from 10-Wisdom to 11-Earth and from 11-Earth to 12-Flint.
12 Flint	Today is the day for deep introspection, and the opportunity to remove those core areas inside, that bother you. Use the mirror of the obsidian stone to see, and the sharp edges to cut and remove. 13-Storm will blow away all those clippings.
13 Storm	As the sun sets, the energy of 1 Ahau will begin. This will be trecena of new light on areas previously hidden. Making room in the garden of your mind for new growth. Ahau days are also days we connect with our ancestors. This is the undertone for the next 13 days.
